About us

The Lalgarh Palace is an imposing red sand stone palace. It was built by Maharaja Ganga Singh in the memory of his father, Maharaj Sri Lal Singh, in 1902 A.D. The Palace was designed by Col. Swinton Jacobs, an Engineer of Jaipur State. He had perfected the Indo-Saracenic style of architecture, he mixed the Rajasthani and Mughal style of architecture with European forms and the end result was an edifice which was both dignified and pleasing to the eye. The Rajasthani exterior of Lalgarh Palace contrasts dramatically with the décor within. The intricately decorative carvings on red stone are hallmark of great local craftsmen. It is an unmatched jewel in the Thar desert and has played host to a number of dignitaries from all over the world.

The lush green sprawling lawns with dancing peacocks and beautiful bougainvilleas adorn the palace.

The Lalgarh Palace Hotel has 50 well-appointed Historical, Superior and Standard rooms equipped with Mini Bar & CCTV. A luxury palace hotel standing tall with its rich heritage, created to celebrate your stay really.

Open corridors run the length of the halls and rooms and are lined with a rare collection of old prints and vintage copies of engravings. The covered corridors that link rooms are measured with hunting Trophies.

The Lalgarh Palace offers accommodation in air, over-tiled, comfortable rooms. All the rooms are air-conditioned with T.V., Telephone, Mini Bar, tea/coffee maker and bathroom with all modern amenities. Each of the rooms are decorated with hand block printed floral fabrics and inspired by ancient wall paintings and Murals, the rooms offer an ambience that make your stay comfortable.

The Palace Mahal restaurant serves indigenous cuisine and beverages which are prepared and served in traditional style. It is decorated in vibrant colours and serves multi-cuisine, breakfast, lunch and dinner.
